

Town of North Attleborough

North Attleborough is situated in southeastern Massachusetts in Bristol County. North Attleborough has convenient access to major interstate highways including Interstate Routes 95, 495 & 295 and is 45 minutes away from Boston & 15 minutes from Providence by car. The former jewelry capital of the world, North Attleborough is working with investors to redevelop abandoned jewelry factories with the goal of repurposing them for residential use as well as sites for firms in the life sciences industry & companies engaged in advanced manufacturing.

Economy

- Thriving industrial park home to 30 companies
- Easy access to interstate highway system
- Competitive utilities
- Median Income in 2016: $83,735

Opportunity Zone Goals

- Redevelop downtown North Attleborough
- Improve accessibility to current businesses for those with disabilities
- Redevelop abandoned jewelry factories in downtown area

Recent Success

- Hired a full time economic development coordinator
- Redevelopment of former Balfour jewelry factory into 193-unit mixed use development underway
- Redeveloped former Jeweled Cross factory into Jewel Cross, a 66-unit residential 40B project

Contact

Lyle Pernie | 508.699.0100
LPirnie@nattleboro.com