DISCUSSION

In reviewing the authority of the authority of the Commission, the Supreme Judicial Court has held that [t]he powers of the States in dealing with the regulation of the sale of intoxicating liquors are very broad. What they may wholly prohibit, they may permit only on terms and conditions prescribed by the Legislature. Supreme Malt Products Co., Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission, 334 Mass. --; Ziffrin, Inc. v. Reeves, 308 U.S. 132, 138-139; Carter v. Virginia, 321 U.S. 131, 137-143. In dealing with a trade, which, because of its great potential evils, can be wholly prohibited, a wide power is given to the Legislature with respect to the delegation of discretionary powers. Connolly v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission, 334 Mass. 613, 619 (1956).

The Supreme Judicial Court has held that, “[t]he legislative history of [the Commission’s enabling act], and of M.G.L. (Ter.Ed.) Ch. 138, as amended, clearly shows that the powers of the commission were not intended to be perfunctory or limited. In the very respect here in issue, the approval or disapproval of the action of local licensing authorities, that history indicates that the Commission was charged with important responsibilities and that it was not to be narrowly restricted in performing them.” Connolly v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission, 334 Mass. 613, 617 (1956).

General Laws chapter 138, section 15 provides, in pertinent part, that “[n]o license shall be issued to any applicant who has been convicted of a felony.” ██████████ was convicted of a felony. Mr. ██████████ is statutorily disqualified from being issued a section 15 license. The Commission is charged with the responsibility to “pierce labels, look beyond form, and come to grips with the substance of the corporate relationship and the economic realities that are present.” 7 Mass.App.Ct. 301, 311 (1979).

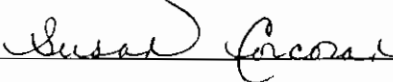

When Mr. ██████████ testified at the hearing and was questioned by counsel, Mr. ██████████ admitted that he was involved in the preparation of the application. He stated that he did not believe that he had a record and thought his cases had “been cleared up.”

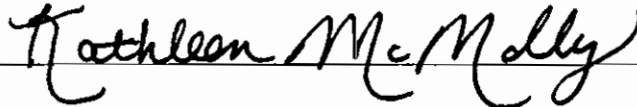

CONCLUSION

Based on the evidence, the Commission finds the licensee violated 204 CMR 2.01 (8)-All applications shall be made under the penalties of perjury and any false statement contained in an application shall be a cause or ground for refusing to grant the license or for suspending, canceling or revoking the license already granted. Therefore, the Commission INDEFINITELY SUSPENDS the license of, effective forthwith until further written order of the Commission.

The Commission will not issue any further order without a written request from the licensee showing good cause to reconsider this indefinite suspension and a hearing before the Commission that the licensee attends. Good cause will require all applications necessary to divest [REDACTED]s direct or indirect beneficial interest in these licenses.
