To withdraw an Option D form prior to retirement, your withdrawal request must be submitted to the Board in writing. If you choose to withdraw the Option D form, complete a Change of Beneficiary form to update beneficiary designation for lump sum distribution purposes. Please note that selection of a beneficiary here does not impact your eligible spouse's right to elect a retirement allowance should you pass away prior to retirement. I understand that this choice of Option D beneficiary may be superseded by an election under G.L. c.32, s. 12(2)(d) if I die leaving an eligible spouse who elects to receive a monthly benefit.

Please return completed form to our main office. Please notify the Retirement Board of any change of address.

* Eligible Beneficiary is defined in the statute as spouse, child, father, mother, sister or brother of member, or unmarried former spouse, and please note that this form must be witnessed by someone other than the Option D beneficiary. A form that is witnessed by the Option D beneficiary will be invalid.
