COSMETOLOGY OUT OF STATE APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Your application must include:

- One 2” x 2” photo
- A copy of your driver’s license
- A copy of your cosmetology, aesthetics, or manicuring license from another state
- You must have the state in which you are licensed send a verification (also sometimes called a certification) of your license directly to the Board whether or not your license is current. This verification or certification should indicate the status of your license, information on any pending actions, and any disciplinary information.
  - If your license is current, then you do not need to take any Massachusetts exam, and your license will be issued upon approval of your application.
  - If your license is expired, then you must take the Massachusetts practical exam before you will be licensed.
  - If you went to school in another state and have not yet been licensed in any state, then you must take the Massachusetts written and practical exams before you will be licensed.
- A money order or check payable to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in the following amount, depending on your application:
  1. Applying with a current license in another state: $204
  2. Applying without a current license in another state: $136

  All money orders must be signed and dated. Application fees are non-refundable.
- An official transcript from your cosmetology school in an envelope sealed by the school showing the subjects and the number of hours in each subject that you completed, and your graduation from the program.
- A notarized Criminal Offender Record Information (CORI) Acknowledgment Form.

Please note that the Board no longer issues temporary permits.

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
