

AVOID Anti-Abortion Centers

What are anti-abortion centers?

Anti-abortion centers, often called “crisis pregnancy centers,” may look like medical clinics but don’t offer comprehensive reproductive health care.

Some advertise abortion counseling, but they do not provide abortion care or referrals to abortion providers.

Anti-abortion centers may mislead pregnant people about their options, delay their care, and can put their health at risk.

Get care you can TRUST

Find trusted reproductive health care providers, including abortion providers at mass.gov/GetTrustedCare

Massachusetts
Department of Public Health

Have you been harmed by an anti-abortion center?

Learn how to file a complaint

If you have been to an anti-abortion center and have concerns about your experience, you can file a complaint online or call the Attorney General's Civil Rights Division at (617) 963-2917.

mass.gov/GetTrustedCare