Your Jury Service

DID YOU KNOW...

In The Commonwealth

An Ongoing Series

JURORS OF COLOR: MASSACHUSETTS WAS FIRST IN THE NATION

- The first people of color to sit on a jury in The United States were two barbers from Worcester. They served in 1860.

- Francis Clough was born in Worcester. William Jenkins had escaped slavery in Virginia and lived in Worcester.

- Slavery had been abolished in The Commonwealth in 1783.

Judge George Lewis Ruffin of Boston was the first black judge in America (appointed 1883).

Presented by:
Office of Jury Commissioner

For More Information Please Visit Our Website:

MAjury.gov