Dr. Carey arrived at 9:10 a.m.

Dr. Cohen stated that she and Dr. Pique both work at Massachusetts General Hospital, and Dr. Cohen is proposing Dr. Pique because Dr. Cohen has been unable to find a supervisor that she has not worked with in the past, including from a list of licensees who have served as supervisors previously for the Board. She has been meeting with Dr. Pique weekly since January.

Dr. Cohen explained that the circumstances of her disciplinary case occurred while she had a "tragic event" in her life. Getting her professional life "back on track" has been her priority.

Dr. Pique explained that she does not anticipate that her work will intersect with that of Dr. Cohen because Dr. Pique works with veterans, and Dr. Cohen works with teenagers and young adults. Dr. Pique is a "seasoned clinician" who as supervised interns and post-doctoral fellows. She believes self-care is very important.

Dr. Carey explained the Board's expectations of a monitoring supervisor.
