Re: Nexus Communications, Inc.
D.T.C. 11-7

Dear Secretary Williams:

Nexus Communications, Inc. ("Nexus") requests that its confidential responses to Department Information Requests, Confidential Exhibits 6, 7 and 9, be withdrawn from the record in this matter and that the Department destroy its copy of these responses. . Concurrent and contingent upon the destruction of the above confidential responses, the Nexus Motion for Confidential Treatment is withdrawn.

The above responses were submitted based upon the original ETC Application filed by Nexus on June 10, 2011, together with a Motion for Confidential Treatment dated November 11, 2011. These responses relate to Nexus facilities and financial information. On March 1, 2012, the Department dismissed Nexus' Application, without prejudice, and permitted Nexus to refile an ETC Application after its Compliance Plan was approved by the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC"). The Nexus Compliance Plan was approved by the FCC on December 26, 2012, and Nexus submitted its Amended ETC Application to the Department on December 31, 2012.

My understanding from discussion with the Hearing Officer is that these materials may be withdrawn from the record and destroyed, and that a previous discussion to this effect took place between the Hearing Officer and Nexus counsel at Davis Wright Tremaine, prior to the filing of the Nexus Amended ETC Application.

Please advise me if this procedure is acceptable and if so, when the destruction of the above confidential responses has occurred. Do not hesitate to contact me regarding this request.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely yours,
