- Nurses are not required to be on duty and in the building 24 hours per day/7 days per week. Inquire with the ALR how often and when nurses are in the building.
- Residents cannot receive skilled nursing care from ALR employees. Ask about the available option for a certified home health agency or hospice services.

RESIDENCY:

- A signed residency agreement is a contract between you and the ALR; read it carefully before signing. Note: If additional services are subsequently required, your monthly costs may increase.
- Eviction from an ALR must comply with the provisions of landlord/tenant law,
- M.G.L. c. 186 or c. 239, and include all notices required by law.
- The ALR cannot prevent you from returning to the ALR after a hospital or rehab stay; however, if your care needs exceed the ALR's capacity for services you may be required to hire private care staff to meet your care needs.
- Your residency agreement may allow the ALR to terminate your residency if it determines that you are no longer suitable to live there;

if this is the case, the Residence must provide a ____ day notice prior to requiring you to leave.

- Signing a residency agreement that includes an arbitration clause or signing a separate arbitration agreement may prohibit use of the court system to resolve disputes and instead require you to present your case to an arbitrator.

COST:

- You should assess your finances to determine how long you can afford to stay at the ALR before making a commitment.
- If you deplete your assets (run out of money) and are unable to afford the cost of the ALR in the future, the ALR may require you to move.
- The ALR can update the monthly fees with _____ days prior notice to you.
- Your service plan can change based on the ALR's reassessment of your needs. Changes to your service plan may alter your monthly costs.
- If you fail to provide notice of termination of Residency in accordance with the terms of the Residency Agreement, you may incur additional charges.
