Citizenship Affirmation	I am a U.S. Citizen
Residency Affirmation	I am a resident of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Statement of Intent	I intend to comply with and advance the policy established by this Act.
Statement of Interest	I am the chair of the Political Science Department at Clark University, where I teach courses on political parties, interest groups, and campaigns and elections. I have studied and taught about campaign finance for nearly twenty years. I have written a number of well-regarded books on the subject, including a study of how the Citizens United decision has affected primary elections, a study of how interest groups in the US and Canada have responded to changing campaign finance laws, and an edited volume on changes in campaign finance law in Western democracies. I serve on the advisory board for the Campaign Finance Institute, a nonpartisan, Washington-based think tank that seeks to educate the public about campaign finance. From 2015 to 2017 I was a member of the Bipartisan Policy Institute / Stanford University Task Force on Campaign Finance, chaired by the lead attorneys for the Democratic and Republican National Committees. I also have collected data for the past fifteen years on the financing of municipal elections in Massachusetts cities. I have extensive experience in speaking to the public about the financing of elections; I write a regular column on American elections for The Hill, and I am a member of the Scholars Strategy Network, and organization that seeks to provide scholarly input into policy debates in Massachusetts and nationwide. I am deeply committed to working to inform the public about how campaign finance laws influence the quality of our democracy.
