ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On November 27, 2013, the Appellant, Stephen Sciara (Mr. Sciara), filed an appeal with the Civil Service Commission (Commission), alleging that he was aggrieved by the failure of the state's Human Resources Division (HRD) to notify him of vacancies for firefighter / paramedic in various communities, including Westwood and Hull.

I held a pre-hearing conference on January 14, 2014 and a status conference on March 11, 2014, both of which were attended by Mr. Sciara and counsel for HRD. During these proceedings, Mr. Sciara stated that he was currently under consideration for appointment in the Town of Hanover. Should such appointment occur, the parties agreed that it would moot the instant appeal.

On May 15, 2014, HRD informed the Commission via email, with a copy to Mr. Sciara, that Mr. Sciara was appointed as a firefighter / paramedic in Hanover, effective May 1, 2014.

For this reason, Mr. Sciara's appeal under Docket No. E-13-269 is hereby dismissed.

By a vote of the Civil Service Commission (Bowman, Chairman; Ittleman, McDowell, and Stein, Commissioners) on June 12, 2014.

A true record. Attest:

Commissioner

Either party may file a motion for reconsideration within ten days of the receipt of this Commission order or decision. Under the pertinent provisions of the Code of Mass. Regulations, 801 CMR 1.01(7)(l), the motion must identify a clerical or mechanical error in this order or decision or a significant factor the Agency or the Presiding Officer may have overlooked in deciding the case. A motion for reconsideration does not toll the statutorily prescribed thirty-day time limit for seeking judicial review of this Commission order or decision.

Under the provisions of G.L. c. 31, § 44, any party aggrieved by this Commission order or decision may initiate proceedings for judicial review under G.L. c. 30A, § 14 in the superior court within thirty (30) days after receipt of this order or decision. Commencement of such proceeding shall not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of this Commission order or decision.
