

SHERA AND EVICTIONS DISCLOSURE FORM FOR THE Subsidized Housing Emergency Rental Assistance (SHERA) Program

PART 1: ASSISTED HOUSEHOLD INFORMATION AND ELIGIBILITY

Property Name	Building Address	Tenant Unit #
City / Town	Zip Code
Tenant Name (Head of Household)	Tenant Date of Birth (mm/dd/yyyy)

PART 2: DISCLOSURES

I understand that my landlord is applying for a SHERA payment on my behalf while also pursuing an eviction against me for reasons other than non-payment of rent.

I understand that receiving the SHERA payment could benefit me by:

- Paying off a debt which otherwise I would still owe to my landlord, which may make it easier for me to find housing in the future
- Potentially helping me reach an agreement with my landlord in the pending eviction case

I understand that my landlord is seeking to evict me for reasons other than non-payment of rent, and receiving SHERA payment does not guarantee that I will be able to keep my housing.

I understand that I may be eligible for free legal assistance. I can go to www.evictionlegalhelp.org for more information and to find a free attorney in my area.

My landlord and I have discussed the availability of free “mediation” services to help us work through issues. I can find more information about mediation at www.resolutionma.org/housing.

I understand that SHERA only helps with past due rent and does not help with moving costs and security deposits, but that I may be eligible for assistance with these costs if I apply to my local Regional Administering Agency, which I can locate at <https://hedfuel.azurewebsites.net/raa.aspx>.
