Re: Response to DPH's July 27, 2017 Request for Information from GTI-Massachusetts NP Corporation (Application 3 of 3)

To Whom It May Concern:

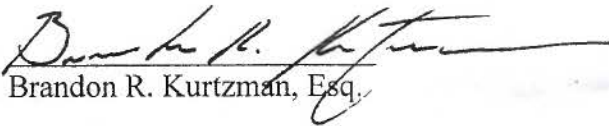

On behalf of GTI-Massachusetts NP Corporation ("GTI"), we are writing in response to the Department of Public Health's ("DPH") July 27, 2017 Request for Information. The DPH requested the following information:

1. DPH Request: The submitted financial account summary from Washington First Bank does not indicate the type of account. Applicant must resubmit that financial account summary with the type of account indicated within. The financial account summary must be dated no earlier than May 26, 2017 and must demonstrate sufficient funds to cover the amount committed by GTI Massachusetts LLC in the table in Section D.

GTI's Response: Please find enclosed an updated financial account summary (dated June 30, 2017) from GTI Massachusetts LLC's Washington First Bank small business checking account, as well as an updated Section D. Initial Capital Requirement form.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very Truly Yours,

Brandon R. Kurtzman, Esq.

Summary of Accounts

Dear valued WashingtonFirst customer, we are excited to introduce our new and improved deposit account statement! You'll notice a new look and feel plus many helpful features. In addition to adding color, the layout has been redesigned to make it easier to find account information, balances, and other transactional details. We also added sections for tailored messaging, like the one you're reading now. These will be used to keep you informed about new products and services, announcements, and important account information. It's our hope these enhancements will make managing your account easier. If you have any questions, please call our Customer Service team at 1-888-974-3778, Monday - Friday, 9:00am - 5:00pm Eastern Time. Again, we hope you enjoy your new deposit statement.
