

Maura Healey, Governor
Kimberley Driscoll, Lieutenant Governor
Phillip Eng, Interim MassDOT Secretary

MINUTES

Special Commission on Micromobility: Review & Refine Meeting

Monday, November 3rd, 2025

11am-1pm

Zoom Webinar & Microsoft Teams

This meeting was streamed live online

Commission Members

Present:

Leonardi Aray, Gerald Autler, James Arciero, Dorothy Fennell,
Nick Gove, John G. LeLacheur, Nathaniel Malloy, Galen Mook,
Kara Oberg, Scott Mullen, Alicia Rebello-Pradas

Commission Member delegates serving for a portion of the meeting:

Jonathan Gulliver (MassDOT), Kris Carter (MassDOT), Alex
Chilton (Sen. Crighton's Office)

Others Participating:

Jaclyn Youngblood, Deputy Chief Innovation Officer, MassDOT
Niren Sirohi, Chief Operating Officer, RMV
Meghan Haggerty, Chief Operating Officer, MassDOT
Caroline DeMarco, Co-Op, MassDOT

1. Call to Order and Agenda

Kris Carter called the meeting to order at 11:01 AM. He explained the agenda for the day, and then Jonathan Gulliver said a few words in lieu of Interim Secretary Phil Eng.

2. Recommendations Review

Kris Carter and members of the commission presented the sixteen commission recommendations and received feedback from present commission members on content, wording, and presentation. The commission discussed mopeds, paths, bike lanes, data, speed limits, traffic control, bikeshare, and future studies.

3. Background Breakout Rooms

Kris Carter gave an overview of the breakout room activities. The three groups convened over separate meetings via Microsoft Teams to discuss topics related to the current state of micromobility, the recommendations, and additional relevant background information for the report.

4. Open Discussion

Although there was time scheduled for open discussion on the agenda, the commission ran out of time to hold it.

5. Closing

Kris Carter presented the timeline for the remaining commission meetings, and then the three “homework” assignments for members. The meeting was adjourned by Carter at 1pm.