INSTRUCTIONS

- Plaintiff must file this mandatory certification form (see Land Court Rule 12), and all required supporting information listed below, after the title examination report is filed in the case.
- The court will issue citation to owners and interested parties identified in the Complaint and the title examination report where address information has been provided or verified (first-tier citation phase).
- Further citation will issue subject to court review of this certification form and supporting information submitted by Plaintiff (second-tier citation phase).
- The court will not conduct further review, nor advance the case to the second-tier citation phase, until Plaintiff has filed this completed certification form and all necessary supporting information with the court.
- For general information about tax lien cases, see Land Court Tax Lien Foreclosure Cases Resources.

CERTIFICATIONS

Having reviewed the title examination report filed in this matter, Plaintiff certifies it verified the following:

- ☐ 1. The equity owners identified in the Complaint are the current owners shown in the title examination report.
- ☐ 2. The online probate records (www.masscourts.org) and the vital statistics records (<https://www.mass.gov/how-to/request-a-death-certificate>) confirm that the equity owners identified in the Complaint, if individuals, are not deceased. If the equity owners are deceased with an allowed Massachusetts probate, then heirs and devisees are named in the Complaint and mailing addresses are attached to this filing. If the equity owners are deceased with no allowed Massachusetts probate, then a letter of diligent search has been filed with the court.
- ☐ 3. The online federal court records (<https://pacer.uscourts.gov/>) confirm that all equity owners and any other interest holders are not debtors in active bankruptcy proceedings. If any of them are debtors, then either proof of relief from the automatic stay in bankruptcy, or proof of the termination of such proceedings has been filed with the court.
- ☐ 4. The online records of the Secretary of the Commonwealth's Corporations Division (<https://www.sec.state.ma.us/divisions/corporations/corporations.htm>) confirm that any business entities identified as equity owners or lienholders remain in good standing. If not, a letter of diligent search has been filed with the court and the names and mailing addresses of officers and directors or managers are attached to this filing. If any such officers, directors, or managers are deceased, then heirs and devisees and their mailing addresses are attached to this filing and a letter of diligent search has been filed with the court.
