Common Sense
a Hunger

To all TLG customers, We regret to inform you that as of this time TLG must suspend all operations due to having no funding capacity. Although we are in pursuit of additional funding sources, the timing and probability of these sources are unknown. We sincerely apologize for all of the problems caused by this situation. We have worked tirelessly to come to an agreeable solution for all, but as of yet have not found the solutions needed. We could have funding in place as early as next week but we do not want to commit to an exact date. We will be sure to update everyone as to the timing of our funding ability. Our plan at this time is to relieve all employees from their role at TLG while we try to meet the new requirements of our existing warehouse lender and try to secure new facilities. For now, to be clear, any and all loans that have not funded, will not fund with us unless we secure our facility and re-close. Any and all loans waiting to close will not close with us until we can guaranty funding. Our ultimate goal is to secure our funding needs and restart production as soon as possible. We will be working diligently to try to make this happen. We would like to thank those that have worked with us and for us during some of the industry's best and worst times. The dedication, determination and sheer commitment to work with us over the last 8 years has always humbled us in gratitude.
