

Translation into English of a Foreign Driver License

Attach photo here

Massachusetts General Law (Chapter 90, Section 10) was changed July 2018. Everyone operating a motor vehicle in Massachusetts with a foreign driver's license that is not written in English must carry either this completed translation, an International Driving Permit (IDP) issued from the country that issued the license, or an alternative translation document that contains a photo and English translation that closely matches the information from an IDP. This form must be completed for an applicant who does not have an IDP or alternative translation document and whose license is not written in English.

All information below must be completed by a qualified translator.

I hereby certify that this is a true and complete original translation from (original language) _____ into English of a driver's license issued by the Country of _____ .

I further certify that I speak the language of the original driver's license fluently and I (check one):

Work for a college, university, or private language school. Name, Address, and Department: _____

Work for a local consulate. Name and Address of Consulate: _____

Am a Massachusetts bilingual notary public ----- (place official notary seal below)

Am a member of the American Translators Association

Licensee Information:

In translating information fields from the license into English, I find the following is indicated on the license:

Country where the license was issued: _____

Full name of the license holder: _____

Date of birth (month/ day/ year): _____

Place of residence on license: _____

Type of vehicle for which the license is valid: _____

Driver license number: _____ Class of license: _____

License issue date: _____ License expiration date: _____

Note: A passport-sized photo of the person depicted on the license must be securely attached to this document in the area provided in the top right corner.

Translator Attestation:

I understand that the original driver's license document for this certified translation and the translation itself may be relied on by law enforcement officers and/or other drivers (in the event of a crash) to properly identify the individual shown on the driver's license and I further understand that false statements may be punished by fine, imprisonment, or both (M.G.L. Chapter 90, Section 24).

Translator's name (printed): _____ Date: _____

Translator's full address: _____

Translator's tel. number/ Email address: _____

Signed under the penalties of perjury:

Translator's signature: _____