

UMASS AMHERST Police Department

University of Massachusetts Amherst– Full Time Police Officer Lateral Transfer

The UMASS-Amherst Police Department is currently accepting applications for full-time, lateral transfer positions. Applicants must have completed a full-time MPTC police academy. Out of state applicants, who attended a police academy outside of Massachusetts, should obtain an advisory letter from the Massachusetts Police Training Committee.

Candidates selected to join the UMASS-Amherst Police Department will be required to successfully complete a comprehensive background investigation, oral interviews, and medical/psychological examinations.

The current salary for patrol officers is $58,331 - $78,902 plus shift differential, education incentive, clothing allowance, paid holidays, accrued vacation and sick time, health/dental plans, employee/family tuition assistance, paid dry cleaning, and numerous other benefits.

For more details or to apply; University Police Officer - Experienced Level - Full-Time Academy Required - UMass Police Department - UMass Amherst or email UMPDrecruiting@umass.edu with any questions.