Re: Interconnection for the Exchange of VoIP Traffic in IP Format

Dear Mr. Elfman,

Verizon's incumbent local exchange carriers provide Voice over Internet Protocol ("VoIP") service to a significant number of customers and understand that Sprint¹ also provides VoIP service to a significant number of customers. Verizon is interested in establishing commercial interconnection arrangements for the exchange of such VoIP traffic in IP format where it is technically feasible and prudent for both parties. If Sprint is interested in negotiating such commercial interconnection arrangements, please contact Ms. Sherri Schlabs at (972) 718-5286 or sherri.schlabs@verizon.com to discuss next steps. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Ross
