

SAVE THE DATE

for a virtual symposium exploring employment as an essential tool for recovery from substance use.

September 14, 2021

WORKING RECOVERY

Why Employment is Pivotal to Sustained Addiction Recovery

Celebrate Labor Day and National Recovery Month by joining world-renowned experts, including keynote speaker U.S. Secretary of Labor Marty Walsh, for this special one-day online event focused on cutting-edge ideas to help people in early recovery. Put September 14, 2021, 10:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. EDT on your calendar now!

The symposium will be offered at no charge and will include such sessions as:

- Answering the Why: What Does the Research Say About the Importance of Employment to Recovery?
- Banding Together: Cross-Systems Collaboration Is Key
- Rally Employers: Now Is the Time to Advance “Recovery-Ready Workplaces”
- What We Do and How We Do It: A Groundbreaking Approach—The ATR Model for Customized Employment Supports for People with Substance Use Disorders
- Call to Action: Next Steps to Carry Us Forward

Mark your calendars now and plan on joining us:

Tuesday, September 14, 2021, 10:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. EDT.

Watch for registration information coming soon!

www.ma-atr.org/symposium

This virtual symposium, WORKING RECOVERY, is sponsored by Massachusetts Access to Recovery (ATR), a project of Advocates for Human Potential (AHP), and funded by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health/Bureau of Substance Addiction Services (BSAS).

