TRAIL INFORMATION AND DESCRIPTIONS

Hiking trails at Wachusett Mountain State Reservation are marked with blue rectangles. Trails commonly have steep, rough and rocky sections, and may be slippery or muddy at any time of the year. Sections of trails may be closed periodically. Use of the hiking trails at the Reservation is limited to hiking, snow-shoeing, cross country skiing, and horseback riding. Vehicular use, including bicycling, is prohibited on the hiking trails. Bicycling is permitted on all of the Reservation roadways.

Part of the Mid State Trail is within the Wachusett Mountain State Reservation. The Mid State Trail stretches 92 miles from New Hampshire to Rhode Island, and is marked with yellow triangles. From the North, the Mid State Trail crosses the Reservation by way of the Balance Rock, Old Indian, Semuhenna, West Side, Old Indian, Mountain House, Link, Harrington, and Dickens Trails. Information on trail length, average one-way hiking trip duration, access locations, and elevation change are listed in the following descriptions.
