The Seal Sensation Station

Drop in for a brief visit or stay longer to look for harbor seals resting on the rocks, and to learn about these fascinating animals. Viewing of seals isn't guaranteed—seals follow the tides, the weather, and their own instincts. Spotting scopes are available for use thanks to DCR's Interpretive Services, Swarovski Optik North America, and the Friends of Winthrop Beaches. Ages: All ages. All children must be accompanied by an adult. For announcements on additional offerings of this program, visit the Friends of Winthrop Beach Facebook page. Free of cost. No pre-registration needed.

Where: On the Sidewalk of Winthrop Parkway in Revere near the traffic light where Winthrop Ave, Endicott Ave and Crescent Ave in Revere all converge onto Winthrop Parkway. Parking is available on the side of the road, and at the small lot down the street at John Joseph Kilmartin Pathway.
