

JUNE TEENTH
FREEDOM
DAY

DOB connects
a program by the Division of Banks

Words to Action: A Commemorative Juneteenth Conversation on Housing Equity in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Juneteenth is a celebration of achievement and recognition of change.

Mounzer Aylouche, Vice President, Homeownership Programs, MassHousing

Our featured speaker will discuss MassHousing's efforts in addressing housing discrimination and mortgage lending to people of color. Attendees will learn from his forty years of lending experience how to build lasting partnerships in the minority housing market.

Moderator:
Mayté Rivera, Deputy Commissioner, Division of Banks

Date:
June 30, 2021 1:00 PM

JUNE TEENTH
FREEDOM DAY

DOB connects

a program by the Division of Banks

Featured Speaker

Mounzer Aylouche oversees all aspects of MassHousing's homeownership business, including production, lending operations and servicing. He has extensive experience in the home mortgage lending industry, having held positions in loan servicing, secondary marketing, loan origination, and senior management. At MassHousing, he previously served as secondary marketing officer, relationship manager and manager of HomeOwnership Business Development. Mr. Aylouche is the 2017 Chairman of the Massachusetts Mortgage Bankers Association.

JUNE TEENTH
FREEDOM DAY

DOB connects
a program by the Division of Banks

Useful Resources

- MAYlouche-The-State-of-the-Market-in-Massachusetts \(4\).pdf
- Racial Differences in Mortgage Refinancing, Distress, and Housing Wealth Accumulation during COVID-19 - Federal Reserve Bank of Boston \(bostonfed.org\)
- Paths to Homeownership for Low-Income and Minority Households | HUD USER

