This map is designed to help focus natural resource protection on the North Shore of Ungava Peninsula. It shows the distribution of various natural resource areas and is intended to be used in conjunction with other maps that provide more detailed information. The map should be used in conjunction with the associated technical report.