

EMAD S. YOUNAN, M.D.

84 Newbury Street
Peabody, MA 01960
978-532-2650

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATION:

February 1998	Board Certification, American Board of Pain Management
September 2000	Subspecialty Certification in Pain Management, American Board of Anesthesiology
April 1997	Board Certification, American Board of Anesthesiology
December 1991	FLEX Certification
July 1990	ECFMG Certification
December 1987	M.B., B.Ch. Ain Shams University, Cairo, Egypt

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

2005 – Present	Director, Pain Center of the North Shore Peabody, MA
2000 – 2005	Director, North Shore Pain Center Union Hospital, Lynn, MA
1998 – 2000	Director, Pain Management Center – Staff Anesthesiologist St. Joseph Medical Center, Reading, PA
1997 – 1998	Pain Management Physician – Staff Anesthesiologist St. Peter's Medical Center, New Brunswick, NJ
1996 – 1997	Pain Management Physician – Staff Anesthesiologist St. Francis Medical Center, Wilmington, DE
1995 – 1996	Pain Management Fellowship Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Cleveland, OH
1994 – 1995	Anesthesiology Residency (CA-3) Cardiothoracic Anesthesiology Fellowship/Pain Management Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Cleveland, OH
1992 – 1994	Anesthesiology Residency (CA-1 & CA-2) Brookdale Hospital Medical Center, Brooklyn, NY
1991 – 1992	Internship – Internal Medicine (PGY-1) Mercy Catholic Medical Center, Darby, PA
1989 – 1991	Externship – Internal Medicine St. Peter's Medical Center, New Brunswick, NJ
1988 – 1989	Rotating Internship Ain Shams University Hospital, Cairo, Egypt

EMAD S. YOUNAN, M.D.
25 Centennial Dr.
Peabody, MA 01960
978-532-2650

LICENSURE:

- Florida State License - #ME-0069813
- New Jersey State License - #MA61213
- Massachusetts State License - #205009

ABSTRACTS:

E.S. Younan, M.D., N.A. Mekhail, M.D., M. Stanton-Hicks, M.D.
Spinal cord stimulation in the management of reflex sympathetic dystrophy.
Ohio Society of Anesthesiologists, Columbus, Ohio
September 1995

E.S. Younan, M.D., M. Stanton-Hicks, M.D.
The use of continuous cervical epidural infusion of etidocaine for pain relief in reflex sympathetic dystrophy of the upper extremity.
Cleveland Society of Anesthesiologists, Cleveland, Ohio
February 1995

REFERENCES:

Available upon request