IV.  Policy
     A.  Probation Policy
DISCUSSION: Ms. Strachan informed the Board of the draft Probation policy. This policy is a Division wide policy and has already been adopted by the Board of Registration in Pharmacy and Dentistry. Ms. Strachan reviewed the policy with the Board and gave examples of what Board staff are able to do. This policy is for “straight-forward” and common cases only so the Board will have a guideline to follow for those similar cases. Any complicated cases will be brought to the Board’s attention.

ACTION: Mr. Bort made a motion to defer any action on adopting this policy until they have more time to review the policy; Ms. Patten seconded the motion. Motion passed with Board members present and voting in favor unanimously.

Documents: Draft Probation Policy

B. Valor Act Policy

DISCUSSION: Ms. Strachan informed the Board of the revised Valor Act policy. The Board already adopted this policy but the policy is now updated and revised to include the waiver of fees. The revised policy was distributed to the Board ahead of time.

ACTION: Mr. Polanik made a motion to adopt the revised/amended Valor Act policy; Mr. Nuccio seconded the motion. Motion passed with Board members present and voting in favor unanimously.

Documents: Draft Valor Act Policy

V. Review/Approval of Continuing Education Contact
A. Principles of Case Management submitted by Don Bellerive

DISCUSSION: The Board reviewed the supporting documentations that Mr. Bellerive has submitted. The Board reviewed the regulations and discussed the number of CEUs Mr. Bellerive is able to obtain for the course.

ACTION: Mr. Polanik made a motion to approve the course for 15 CEUs; Ms. Patten seconded the motion. Motion passed with Board members present and voting in favor unanimously.

Documents: CE documents

VI. Other Business/Announcements
A. License Status Codes

DISCUSSION: Ms. Strachan distributed the documentation in regards to the License status code. The codes have been updated to maintain consistency and clarity among the Boards within the Division. This is for the Board’s information only.

ACTION: None
