

MASSACHUSETTS BOARD OF BAR EXAMINERS
BAR EXAM SECURITY POLICY

STRICTLY ENFORCED

All violations will be reported to the Board of Bar Examiners and may impact eligibility for admission to the Massachusetts Bar.

CELL PHONES AND PERSONAL ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Examinees may bring one (1) cell phone, or other mobile device to the exam site. Upon entering the exam site, examinees will be required to power-off the device and the device will be placed by bar exam staff into a locked Yondr Case (www.veryondr.com). The device, in the Yondr Case to prevent access to the device by the examinee, will remain in the physical possession of the examinee. The Yondr Case will only be unlocked by bar exam staff at the conclusion of the testing day.

PROHIBITED CONDUCT

- Writing, typing, erasing, or otherwise adding to, altering or subtracting from an examination answer once the end of the examination session is announced.
- Looking at or copying another examinee's test materials.
- Removing or attempting to remove any test materials from the examination room.
- Having and/or referring to bar review materials at the exam site.
- Attempting, by any method, to share or exchange exam information within the exam site or externally.
- Giving or receiving assistance with any examinee.
- Talking while the examination is in session.
- Being disruptive to the bar examination process by any sound or movement either inside or outside the exam room.
- Being verbally or physically abusive to anyone, including examinees, security, or exam personnel.
- Falsifying or misrepresenting exam or personal information.

LAPTOP COMPUTER EXAMINEES

While in exam rooms, examinees are absolutely prohibited from accessing programs and platforms, with the exception of EXAMPLIFY, including but not limited to, the internet, email, notes or study materials. All programs, windows and documents MUST BE CLOSED PRIOR to entering the exam room. Computers must be left in the examination room during the lunch break. Please review INFORMATION FOR LAPTOP COMPUTER EXAMINEES.

Please be advised that all storage item(s) left unattended at the exam facility will be confiscated by Security Personnel.