Wachusett Superintendent's House, Wachusett Mountain State Reservation (Princeton)

Built as an office and residence for the Reservation's first Superintendent, Guy Chase, this important house is one of the first buildings built by the fledgling park agency in 1903. Although vacant for the past 30+ years, DCR continued to invest in the stabilization of the house, but an active reuse was needed to reconnect the property with the public. The Curators signed a 40-year lease in 2018 to fully rehabilitate, maintain and manage the house and garage as a specialty market, café and community gathering place. Visit mountainsidemarket.com to learn more about the project and for updates as they transition into the new space. Anticipated investment: $969,500.

Officers' Quarters, Ft. Revere State Park (Hull)

The 1903 Officer's Quarters' at Fort Revere is an intact example of standardized housing built for military personnel at the turn of the century. Fort Revere was built as part of an aggressive coastal defense program referred to as the Endicott Period which lasted from 1885 to 1905. The site's military importance dates back to the Revolutionary War, when American and French forces built the fort to protect Boston Harbor from British ships. The selected Curator will reuse the house as a residence and reestablish the building's interpretive rooms under a 25-year lease executed in 2017. Anticipated investment: $1,143,597

Gatekeeper's House, Maudslay State Park (Newburyport)

The turn-of-the-century Gatekeeper's House was built in 1903 and is located at what was the southeast entrance to the former Moseley family estate named "Maudsleigh" (now Maudslay State Park). Architect Jacques & Rantoul's distinctive Shingle style connects the remaining estate buildings and holds together the historic integrity of this Gilded-Era period in the park's history. Theater in the Open, a youth arts education and performance non-profit, will rehabilitate and maintain the house that has been their headquarters for two decades under a 20 year lease (lease anticipated Spring 2017). Learn more about Theater in the Open-theaterintheopen.org. Anticipated investment: $530,004

Bell House and Barn, Maudslay State Park, (Newburyport)
 The Bell House is an excellent intact example of a mid-nineteenth century Italianate-influenced farmhouse and is significant as an example of the rural agricultural landscape that predated the area's transformation into a private estate, as well as for its place in the history of the estate. The house, formerly used as staff housing, was vacant until the current Curators signed a 20-year lease in 2016 and are rehabilitating the property as a single family residence. Anticipated investment $469,230.

Coachman's House & Outbuildings, Maudslay State Park, (Newburyport)
 The Coachman's House & its outbuildings make up the greatest concentration of original structures from the turn-of-the-century Moseley family Estate. Designed around 1900 by Boston architect William G. Rantoul, the Shingle style buildings are situated on a wooded, hilly parcel along the banks of the Merrimack River. The Curator signed a 50 year lease in 2016 and has proposed to preserve the remaining four buildings and designed landscape as a single family residence and a rotating program and event space for local non-profits. <http://coachmanhouse.org>. Anticipated investment: $1,451,580

Gatekeeper's House and Barn at Lowell Heritage State Park (Lowell)
 This 1847 house, once the residence of the Gatekeeper of the Pawtucket Dam's lock and canal systems, sits in a prominent spot overlooking the Merrimack River. The current Curator (the property's second) signed a fifteen-year lease in 2014 and currently uses it as a single family residence. Expected investment: $201,960. Horseneck Lifesaving Station, Horseneck Beach State Reservation (Westport)
 The Westport Lifesaving Station was erected in 1888 by the Mass. Humane Society. George Manchester, former Captain of the whaler Kate Cory, was appointed first keeper at the age of 64. The MA Humane Society was the nation's first lifesaving organization and was instrumental in the creation of the US Coast Guard in 1915. The Curators, the Westport Fishermen's Association, rehabilitated the property as a museum and educational center and will continue to maintain the property under a 25 year lease signed in 2013. westportriver.org/ Investment to date: $183,975.

Smith Farmhouse, Borderland State Park (Easton)

Built around 1870, this rural farmhouse was built by clairvoyant healer Ezibeal Smith, and was later utilized for farming experimentation by the Ames family as part of Borderland, their country estate. The selected Curators plan to restore the unique property as an alternative healing and events center under a 40 year lease. Anticipated Investment: $430,759.00

Wilbur Farmhouse, Borderland State Park (Easton)

The farmhouse was built by George Wilbur in 1786 and is the oldest structure within Borderland State Park. Wilbur raised cattle on the property, which was later sold and occupied by generations of farmers until the land was purchased by the Ames family in 1949, and incorporated into their sprawling estate, Borderland. The selected Curator plans to restore the house as a single family residence under a 35 year lease. Projects include replacement of the deteriorated kitchen ell with a compatible new addition and reconstruction of the timber frame Wilbur Barn, which collapsed in 2008. Follow the progress at thewilburfarmhouse.com

Anticipated investment: $482,614

E.F. Dodge (Kerighan) House, Bradley Palmer State Park (Hamilton)

DCR executed a lease with the Curators of this early-19th century Federal-influenced farmhouse in Bradley Palmer State Park. Bradley Palmer integrated the house, which predated his acquisition of the property, into his estate as staff housing. The Curators are rehabilitating the property as a residence in return for a 25 year lease. Follow their progress at residentcurator.com

Anticipated investment: $714,208

Bascom Lodge, Mt. Greylock State Reservation (Adams) In May 2009, DCR selected a Curator to operate, rehabilitate and maintain Bascom Lodge, one of the state's iconic historic properties. The Curators will continue the decades-long tradition of providing quality food, lodging and programs for visitors to Mt. Greylock State Reservation. The native stone and timber lodge was built by the Civilian Conservation Corps in 1934-7. Find information on lodging and dining options as well as public events at this mountaintop lodge at: bascomlodge.net

Anticipated Investment: $568,862

Crosby Mansion, Sully House and Graham House at Nickerson State Park (Brewster)

Following the passage of legislation (Section 224 of Chapter 127 of the Acts of 1999), a 25-year lease was signed between DCR and the Town of Brewster for the 1888 mansion and two 20th century cottages. The town rents out the restored cottages and invests the resulting income into the restoration of the mansion.
