

2023 CHARLES E. SHANNON COMMUNITY SAFETY INITIATIVE FITCHBURG/GARDNER

Funded Partners: City of Fitchburg Police Department, City of Gardner Police Department, Making Opportunity Count, Mount Wachusett Community College, Shining Light Ministries, Spanish American Center

Funded by the Office of Grants and Research, a state agency that is part of the Executive Office of Public Safety and Security, the Charles E. Shannon Community Safety Initiative (Shannon) is modeled after the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention's Comprehensive Gang Model. Shannon is a multi-sector approach used to address a community's gang and youth violence problem. Each community receiving Shannon funding demonstrates the presence of risk factors for youth and gang violence. Shannon participants must be between the ages of 10-24 years.

Success Highlight

"One of our student's parent passed away from an overdose, and their other parent is currently incarcerated. The student also disclosed their past hardships with substance and alcohol abuse. The student graduated high school a few years ago and decided to return to college in the fall of 2023 for the first time. This student excelled in all their classes during the fall 2023 semester - and credited much of their success to the Senior Success Program. The student expressed sincere gratitude for the supplies and their counselor that were provided to them."

10-24

Since the end of the summer of 2022, the number of juveniles involved in gang activity or suspected to be involved in gang activity has grown for the first time in about a decade. Youth as young as 13 have been noted to be involved in criminal activity, including weapons, disturbances, assaults, robberies, shootings, and suspected drug activity. There are at least three emergent juvenile gangs forming in the Tri-City area, including Leominster and Gardner. Over the last 18 months, they have participated in several violent severe crimes, including shootings, stabbings, and shots fired calls for service. Crime rates have increased in and around public parks, school events, and after-school activities. In Fitchburg alone, these suspected gangs and their associates have participated in at least 16 significant crimes in the city and at least a dozen in Leominster.
